

LOCAL LAW NO. 1 OF 1928.

At a Regular Meeting of the Common Council of the City of Plattsburgh, N.Y., held June 15, 1928, the following Local Law No. 1 of 1928 was adopted:

By Alderman SPENCER, Seconded by Alderman TIERNEY.

A local law to amend the charter of the City of Plattsburgh by conferring power upon the common council to prohibit, permit or regulate the use of public highways and places for the storage and distribution of gasoline, oils and other motor fuel.

Be it enacted by the common council of the City of Plattsburgh as follows:

Section 1. Section forty-five of chapter two hundred and sixty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and two entitled "An act to incorporate the city of Plattsburgh", as last amended by chapter six hundred and forty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen is hereby amended and superseded by adding thereto a new subdivision to be subdivision thirty-one and to read as follows:

31. In addition to other powers conferred upon it by law, the common council shall have power to prohibit, permit or regulate, to restrict, locate or relocate the placing or maintenance of tanks, containers, pumps, standpipes, hoses, light posts and other similar appliances for the storage and distribution of gasoline, oil and other motor fuel within the boundaries or beneath the surface of any street, sidewalk or other public place in the city of Plattsburgh; to at any time remove or cause to be removed such tanks, containers, pumps, standpipes, hoses, light posts and other similar appliances as are now or may be hereafter placed within the boundaries or beneath the surface of any such street, sidewalk or public place pursuant to this act; for the purpose of revenue or regulation to require of applicants for permission to so place and maintain such tanks, containers, pumps, standpipes, hoses, light posts and other similar appliances the payment of such fee or license therefor and the compliance with such other conditions as it may deem proper; and to adopt ordinances carrying into effect the powers granted to it by this or any other provision of law, fixing the amount of such fee or license and such other terms and conditions and prescribing penalties for violations of such ordinances.

2. Every other provision of chapter two hundred sixty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and two, as amended, inconsistent herewith is hereby superseded.

3. This local law shall take effect immediately.

On roll call Aldermen FRAZIER, BRAULT, ANDERSON, SPENCER, TIERNEY and BOURDEAU voted in the affirmative. No one in the negative. CARRIED.

The above law is hereby approved the 15th day of June, 1928.
